“ Tommy was in my group of 3, WA Emory, now in Florida, Me, Bob Jones in Chester, Va. now, but we lived in Colonial Heights, Va. where we grew up. His mom Myrtle and Step-dad, think was Major Schwartz at that time, was stationed at Ft Eustis, and they invited us time to time to the base, where at that time, old buildings on the beach was our play place early 50's.
Tommy lived with MAMAU, his grand-mother and his aunt lived up the street, and Connie a cousin & her brother, and still lives close, and on facebook, we talk occassionally.
I had hoped to see him one day, and had tried to find him, and never could, till I went looking and found the Obit and I did respond to it, not realizing it was an OB, till I sent a message.
Shocked I didn't ever have in my life time to tell Tommy, I always thought of him and wondered where he was, but never could find him.
Linda, where ever you are God Bless you. You had the best and we thank him for all those he surely saved and am sure some today know who Tommy was.

“ Tom's obituary does not include service info because we don't have a burial date yet. Tom will be buried with full military honors in Arlington National Cemetery in a year. Arlington is currently backlogged. His created remains will remain with me until then. There will be a local celebration of life in Sarasota in the near future for family and local friends. There will also be a notice to family and friends when we have a date for burial at Arlington.

“ I hadn't known Tom for long but the way he and his wife Linda welcomed me was amazing. I remember the first day I met him he raved about this chicken sandwich Linda makes him and the next time I came around she made it for us to enjoy & boy was he right lol! He was such a good soul and very knowledgeable. I told him one day during our talks that I enjoy word games/ things that make me think and he introduced me to the word games he plays in the newspaper. We would work on them together and laugh at ourselves with the easy ones we thought too hard on. Don't get him started with scrabble either!! He was one of the toughest I've ever played with but the most enjoyed competitor. I've enjoyed every second with him and he will truly be missed. <3

“ Tom was such a honest, smart and wholesome man. It was a challenge when we played our scrabble games. He would do anything for you and he welcomed me into his and Linda's life with open arms. Special people come into your life and he was one of them and will truly be missed. Peace be with him. Erika Brand.

Carl Thomas M Schwartz was a prince of a man.

I remember when we had our first one on one meeting after he had been the commander in Germany for a few months.

We hit it all great Colonel Tom was a Huey helicopter pilot and I was a flight engineer on Chinook helicopters with the first Calvary division in Vietnam.

But and there was always a butt speaking of butts. He asked me when I was gonna get with the program and bring my maintenance program to a satisfactory condition ladies and gentlemen, I was shocked so after he chewed on me a while, give me a little bit of history about the 109th transportation Company's maintenance lack of maintenance program. Same this company had a history of bad commanders and bad maintenance officers.

Remember, I have been in the army at that time over 16 years and was a senior NCO E7 I had not been talked to like that in a long, long, long, long time .

I got the message from Neighbors. I got the message.

The first thing I did when I left his office was go across the street from my maintenance company to the 150 th trans company, maintenance officer, CW3 Jerry W Venable. By the way, he had the best maintenance program and the 28th Trasn battalion.

Well, some much later, Coral Schwartz, summoned me to his office again .. this time it was hotdogs, apple pie, Chevrolet, Georgia and Alabama football.

I was from Alabama and Colonel Tom was from Georgia.

We remain good friends, right the rest of his life and I always thought he was a superstar officer .

I was so glad that he got promoted to full colonel, knowing that the group commander and Colonel Tom, were not on good terms! A group commander was a flaming retarded piece of work for the lack of a better word.

Colonel Tom always wanted to make 06 for Colonel cause his dad was a 06 Captain in the Navy. I remember his dad and he was a fine gentleman also.

I firmly believed that our friendship was somewhat based on our service in Vietnam, to include CW 3 Jerry Venable's Vietnam service.

God bless you, and your family who are missing you so much right now . "En Temps"

“ Tom was a truly exceptional person - as a decorated war hero, community volunteer, dedicated parent and loving husband. He made friends wherever he went and was loved by all who knew him. Fond memories of our times together will remain in our hearts forever. We'll miss you, Linda and Bill Tiffan
