“ as a friend who first met Vi when she came to work for School Health I am devastated to learn of her passing. We were planning lunch next week,. We clicked instantly the first time I met her..... I loved her "quirky" sense of humor, her quick wit and her love of life.. She adored her family and was always there if I needed a friend to share with in good times and bad. To say she will be dearly and forever missed is a vast understatement. I am heart broken and send all my prayers for comfort to each of you.
