“ Denise, Holly and Lisa. just saw this on line. wow. knowing all of the clan, your mom, dad and all of you across the street. Bill would pick you up in his HOT car. Your dad and Bill would go hunting and fishing, mushroom picking and everything else. As we all got older, Holly lived up the street. Life always presents its challenges as we all get older. Living on Myrtle avenue was a lot of fun. Its nice to see that all of you are together. stay strong and healthy. enjoy life as it is short.

“ I lived across the street from Bill on Wagon Wheel Circle for about two years. I always admired the way he maintained his property. He was an open and friendly man, always ready with a wave and best wishes for a good day. He never complained. We missed him when he moved and now we miss him even more.

“ Deanice, Lisa and Holly, we are sorry for your loss. The way Bills last years have gone I am certain he wouldnt have wanted to continue that way. I know he was a fighter and fought to the end but the this cancer must be awful to take down someone a tough as Bill. As a young guy I thought Bill was one of the toughest men I knew. I know that you ladies were everything to Bill and that hed want you all to continue your lives to the fullest. Sorry we cant make the commute down. We wish you well with getting through this tough time.

“ Deanice, So sorry and sad to hear about Bill passing. He and I did a whole lot of growing up together. From Cub Scouts thru high school. Forty years flew by in a blink of an eye. Spent the last half hour laughing to myself over stories I could remember. He was a really good guy and a fine man. The friends you have from when you're 8 -18 are the best friends of your life. Whether you see them again or not. Funny because if we did run into each other after 40 years it would have been as if no time had passed. I'm going to miss him a lot.
