

William Douglas Hogan

September 2, 2016

William Douglas Hogan, 61, of Sarasota, FL died on September 2, 2016.

He is survived by his wife Jacalyn Hogan, his children Kelly and Kim Hogan, his sister Leslie Hogan (Christopher) Ramsdell, and brother John (Robin) Hogan. He was preceded in death by his parents, Edward W. and Kathleen F. Hogan.

Born and raised in Sarasota as a lifelong Catholic, he attended St. Martha's School and Cardinal Mooney HS, where he was a member of the "famous" 1972 championship football team, graduating in 1973.

Notable in his early work history for writing the scheduling system for Sarasota Memorial Hospital as they began to transition to computers, he subsequently spent more than 25 years in a successful career in the insurance industry.

Bill was an avid beekeeper and a member of the Suncoast Beekeepers Association. He enjoyed all sports, especially Gator Football where he was a loyal Gator Booster and season ticket holder, as well as a wood worker, home remodeler and loyal friend and brother. He will be remembered for his happiness, love of laughter, and unwavering dependability and helpfulness.

In lieu of flowers, please honor Bill with a contribution in his name to FSBA to Build the Bee Lab at Florida State Beekeepers Association, 7561 Old St Augustine Road, Tallahassee, FL 32311, or call (904) 515-3722.

A visitation will be held at the Toale Brothers Colonial Chapel on Friday, September 9, 2016 from 5:00 to 9:00 pm with a prayer service scheduled for 8:30 pm.

A funeral mass will be held on Saturday, September 10, 2016, 10:00 am at St. Martha Catholic Church with burial to follow at Palms Memorial Park.

“ So very sorry to hear about the loss of Bill. I remember working with him at Sarasota Memorial Hospital. He was always pleasant with a smile on his face and very helpful to those of us needing technical assistance. My thoughts and prayers are with your family during this sad time. May God keep you in his hands and give you comfort and peace.
