“ Please accept my sincere condolences in this time of need. My wish is that the words of Christ Jesus be of comfort to you, in which he states that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out (John 5: 28, 29). We are also comforted by God's promise to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and to swallow up death forever (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Jw.org

“ Please accept my sincere condolences in this time of grief. My hope is that the words of Christ Jesus comfort your family, in which he states that the hour is coming when those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out (John 5: 28, 29). We can also take comfort in God's promise to wipe away every tear of sorrow, and that death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4).
