

William Warren

December 21, 1931 - March 27, 2020

THERE IS THIS TO BE SAID
OF THE LAND OF THE DEAD
AND THE LEAVING OF LIVING BEHIND:
NO ONE'S EVER RETURNED
TO RELATE WHAT THEY'VE LEARNED
SO I'M DAMNED IF I KNOW I'LL FIND.

BUT, I'M NOT GOING TO DWELL
UPON HEAVEN AND HELL,
NEITHER LIVING IN HOPE NOR IN FEAR.

FOR, THERE'S THIS I CAN DO,
AND THE SAME GOES FOR YOU:
MAKE THE MOST OF THE TIME I HAVE HERE.

A graveside service will be announced at a later date.

“ Hi, My name is Kyle, I am the husband of Amy,at the Coffee Carousel. When I heard of the passing, of Bill, I was deeply saddened. I, so, looked forward to seeing him at the diner. I only new Bill 10 years, but he will forever be in my heart. I don't think I ever saw him, without a smile, and without a great story. I will miss him,as I'm sure, everyone will, that knew him. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. I hope you can find great joy in the memories, and peace, knowing he is with God.

Thank you God, for my friend, Bill Warren.

“ A grandparent plays a major role in life thankfully ive been blessed with the best grandpa I couldve had. it takes a lot to be the best but not in this case it's easy to see behind the struggles, mistakes, trials and problems faced by my grandpa I've never once heard my grandpa belittle or negatively speak upon another or himself. He was such a strong individual who will forever live in our hearts, and never be forgotten.. I wish upon everything my children would have the blessing to of met my grandpa or have granparents as wonderful as mine. They were so involved in radio that as well as their families lives. I could thank them enough. Granpa was so beyond amazing from his writing talents, to his beyond heartfelt hugs. I wish one day to see him again and remind him we all appreciate and miss him dearly.. Life was somehow easier with him involved even if it was just to sit and chat about what may be interfering in our current life. Hed do anything to assure us we will be alright and it could be worse somehow but he would find a way to resolve it quickly and if possible at all. He was loving and truly genuine no matter what. He was the light of the family.. We will dearly miss him but allow him to watch over us and still live closely in our hearts. Grandpa, I want to thank you for bringing the family together as we are all wonderful. Especially yourself. I hope you understand your presence was the most wonderful thing about you, i couldnt ever find one negative thing to say about you. I love you and miss you dearly. Until we meet again granpa

“ I've always been proud to say I was named after my Uncle Bill. He had a wicked sense of humor that I always loved. I'd have to look really close at the twinkle in his eye to try and figure out if the story he just told was just for fun or if it was a teaching moment. After a while I realized it was always both.

Thank you Uncle Bill for all of those great times. I'll carry them forward.

“ I wish I had made it over one more time to have some time with Uncle Bill. I will always remember him as a great storyteller. When I was a child he came and stayed with us while looking for a house for his family in Sarasota. He always talked with me as if we were buddies, not as an adult to a child. One of his famous stories was about having trouble getting the boys to quite down after they had been put to bed. Uncle Bill said he scolded them and told them sternly that he didn't want to hear another peep. But he didn't make it out the door before he heard Ricky say quietly "peep", and Uncle Bill had to keep a straight face when he left.

We will all miss him,
Sandy

“ You have always brought a smile to the table, never shied away from having your voice heard no matter how controversial , the music you have written, I hope will be heard through out the years. Your poetry will help others to heal , to smile and maybe help their thought patterns to weave a positive tune.

Not only were you well loved by me, and by my mom (of course) and so many others, but also by my Dad... and you used to remind me of how he would use his elbow to emphasize whatever joke he'd just made. Made me a little less lonely...

I've loved your poems, your hymns and your stories. I'll miss that laugh, and that nudge.

“ It goes without saying that Bill will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him. His wisdom, wit and writings brightened our lives and broadened our outlook on life. We know he's at peace now in his forever home and we offer prayers of comfort for his family.
