William B. Wladecki, M.D. 9/24/1922 – 7/27/2016

Dorothy Marie Wladecki (Kaminski) 10/22/1928- 1/24/2013

William B. Wladecki, M.D., "A Damn Good Doctor", a Great American, went to be with his wife, Dorothy and friends too numerous to count. "Loved Forever". This phrase describes their relationship and life together. The accolades were many for both and neither wanted any applause.

William, known as Wac, grew up in Lorain attended Ohio University, then was drafted into WW2 and served in the 100th infantry. He came home, finished college, went to University of Cincinnati Medical School. He had already met the brilliant, elegant, and beautiful Dorothy, who graduated at the age of 16 from Elyria H.S., and they married August 6, 1949. Finishing Medical School, he had to join the Air Force to support the family, and they went to Columbus and Fort Worth Texas. Finally, to Columbia University for ENT surgical training, then back home to raise a family in Elyria Ohio. Dorothy became the office manager, accountant, and best mom ever. What a TEAM.

Mother and father to Nancy Wilkinson (Chuck-deceased), Marcia Gore, (Jay), Geoff, Mark (Ginny), and Judy. Grandparents to 10. We smile as we remember both of you, Thank you for showing us how to live life. Sto Lat!
